

the collection of State taxes and other moneys of the State, with this condition: "That if the above-bonded— shall well and faithfully execute his office of Treasurer of Dorchester County and Clerk, and shall account with the State Comptroller for and pay to the Treasurer of the State the several sums of money which he shall receive for the State, or be answerable for by law, at such time as the law shall direct, then this obligation to be void; but otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law." The said official shall as aforesaid also execute and present to the said County Commissioners for approval a bond to the State of Maryland in the penalty of thirty thousand dollars, in reference to the collection and payment of county taxes and other moneys belonging to the said county, with this condition: "That if the above-bound shall well and faithfully execute his office of 'Treasurer of Dorchester County and Clerk,' and shall account with the said County Commissioners for, and pay to the same or to their order, the several sums of money which he shall receive for the county, or be answerable for by law, at such time as the law shall direct, then this obligation to be void; but otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law." The said bonds shall be respectively executed by said official, and by one surety or more than one, or by a guaranty or bonding company, incorporated under the laws of this State, as surety. When a guaranty or bonding company is surety on either of the said bonds, the said County Commissioners shall levy and pay such sum as may be necessary to defray the expenses of said bonds. The said bonds and the surety or sureties thereon must be approved by the said County Commissioners, and they or a majority of them must endorse on the bonds severally such approval, and they or a majority of them shall sign said endorsements. After the bonds have been severally approved they shall forthwith be filed in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for said county, and they shall be recorded by said clerk, and a certified copy thereof shall be admitted and received as evidence in any of the Courts of this State. (The said W. Hamilton Spedden being under the following section (Section 107) constituted Treasurer of Dorchester County and Clerk for a term continuing to the end of the year nineteen hundred and thirteen and being required to execute and present for approval the bonds described in the following section (Section 107), shall not be required in or for his said term to execute the bonds described in this section (Section 106).) If, from death, resignation, removal from office, removal from the county or from any other cause or causes, a vacancy occurs in the office of the "Treasurer of Dorchester County and Clerk," the said County Commissioners as speedily as practicable, shall fill the vacancy for the un-
